

--World-Herald Photo.

Western Electric Administration Building Takes Shape

Due for occupancy late this year is this administration building at the Western Electric Company plant near Millard. It will contain engineering, personnel, tabulating, medical and other departments. Executive offices will be in the penthouse shown over the main entrance. Floor space, including a basement level, will be 180 thousand square feet. Two cafeterias will be in adjoining buildings.